THE HISTORIC GAMBLE HOUSE

Our June program takes us inside the Gamble House in Pasadena. Designed and built in 1908-09 by architects Charles and Henry Green, the three-story home is a National Historical Landmark! Commissioned by David Gamble (of Proctor and Gamble) as a winter home for his family, the manse is considered an Arts-and-Crafts architectural masterpiece. The house features the original rich woods, custom-designed furniture, rugs, light fixtures, leaded art glass, masonry and metalwork.

Dr. Teresa Morales, accompanied by a slide show, will delineate the Gamble House history as it enters its second century. Our speaker holds a B.A. in art history from UCLA, an M.A. in art education from California State University Northridge, and her Ph.D. in art education from Pennsylvania State University. Dr. Morales is the former senior Collections Cataloger at the Getty Research Institute. While at the GRI, she curated a display of archival items pertaining to a Getty Museum paneled room, and presented select archival collections. Currently, as a community outreach volunteer, our speaker facilitates studio art workshops and conducts regular public tours at the historic Gamble house.

MEET AURIANA DUFFY:

At our June 14 branch meeting, we are pleased to welcome Auriana Duffy, Vice-President of Cultural Diversity for the Associated Students of Pasadena City College. She is our delegate to the National Conference for College Women Student Leaders (NCCWSL), held June 5-7, 2014, at the University of Maryland. We are co-sponsoring her along with the Pasadena branch of AAUW, and we are anxious to hear her experiences at this outstanding conference.

THANK YOU

It has been a pleasure to serve as your co-Presidents during this past year, and we thank everyone for their support and assistance. We encourage your active participation in our Branch activities. Only then will Glendale Branch thrive!

Have a wonderful summer.

Nancy Ellyson, Co-President

Patricia Wilson, Co-President

THANK YOU, THANK YOU !!

Two exclamation points do not do enough service in thanking NANCY ELLYSON and PAT WILSON who have just completed their second terms as our branch co-presidents. (Nancy previously served a 1994-1995 term, and Pat was president in 1997-1998.) Nancy and Pat stepped in at a critical leadership crisis in our branch history, and responded with warmth and dedication in serving second terms. We applaud their leadership and hope that they enjoy their leadership retirement *as our branch enters a challenging phase of indirect guidance.

Nancy has been our Yearbook Editor for many years and continues to serve in that role.

REPORTING FROM AAUW STATE CONVENTION

by Mary Jo Brown

AAUW CA Convention at the Marriott Hotel at LAX on April 11-13, 2014, was energizing. Members were welcomed by the first lady of Los Angeles, Amy Elaine Wakeland, Mayor Garcetti's wife. We also heard from CA AAUW President Alicia Hetman about accomplishments in California, including calling attention to Title IX. National AAUW President, Patricia Fae Ho, mentioned that Barack Obama calls our lobbyist when he wants women's groups' positions!

The CEO of the Geena Davis Institute showed stunning data about girls not being represented in the media. They are working at the beginning stages of projects with writers and directors to affect casting and characters in movies. On Saturday, at the AAUW Funds Luncheon, Linda Alepin was awarded the Eleanor Roosevelt Award for her founding of the Global Women's Leadership Network. I attended a workshop on AAUW Funds which addressed fundraising guidelines and described the various funds that our organization supports. I also attended a Leadership workshop which addressed the problem of involving more members in leadership positions. We have a wonderful organization which helps many young women to achieve their goals and yet we have difficulty getting members to help in the nuts and bolts of running our local branches.

Please, please--when a member of the Board asks you to lead a committee, please have a positive attitude and accept the responsibility of helping to run our Glendale branch. At this time, we need Committee chairs for the following: Hospitality, Ways and Means, Public Policy, Publicity, and By-Laws. Please see Nancy Ellyson if you would be interested in helping us to fill these positions
