AN INSIDE-COLLEGE GUIDE FOR OUR STUDENT GRANT AWARDEES

The May 10 program offers much to each of the attendees of our monthly breakfast and meeting. We have the always popular recognition of young women students receiving our annual grants. We also have a speaker who talks directly to these young women about college experiences, yesterday and today, and who also speaks to our other audiences, the AAUW members and their guests, the awardees' guests and the school counselors.

Our speaker this year, ALEN ANDRIASSIAN, is well qualified to talk about the college experience and the many services provided today at the college level to help students make vocational and educational decisions. Having graduated from California institutions, Mr. Andriassian is now the Outreach and Assessment Manager at our own Glendale Community College and has been so for almost ten years. He will discuss the ups and downs of his own undergraduate years, and then turn to today's college environment and discuss its full range of counseling and assessment systems available to students.

Please come to our meeting, held on May 10, at the Oakmont Country Club, and hear from each of our Glendale student grant awardees and from Mr. Andriassian

Presidents Message

Several members attended the AAUW-CA Convention at the Marriott near LAX airport, and the presentations were very inspiring.

I attended two workshops: "Financially Fickle Floosies" and "Many Ways to Lead". The first workshop discussed some practical and fun ways to engage members in a financial literacy program.

The second workshop featured three branches and how each had adopted alternate ways to govern their branch. The ideas regarding these alternatives were discussed at the Nominating Committee meeting held on Monday, April 14th, and will be presented in May. The afternoon plenary session featured staff members from AAUW's national office discussing strategies and tactics for marketing our branch to the community. The schedule of events and workshops from the Convention will be available at our May meeting. Please feel free to look it over.

Los Angeles County Interbranch Council (LACIC) is holding a "Leadership Day" on May 31, 2014, 9 am to 2:30 pm. The cost is $15 per person. If you would like to attend there will be registration forms available at our May meeting.

We encourage your active participation! If you need help coming to meetings feel free to contact us.
