Cindy Cleary Library, Arts & Culture

We welcome Cindy Cleary, the Director of Library, Arts & Culture for the City of Glendale. She was raised in Nyack, New York where her love of libraries began as a daily visitor to an 1879 Andrew Carnegie Library. She received her B.A. in English Literature from State University of New York, Buffalo and a Master's in Library and Information Science from UCLA.

She has a varied job of overseeing all eight libraries in the City of Glendale, six of which meet the distinct needs of the neighborhood they serve. Prior to being appointed Director, she served as a Children's Librarian, Brand Library and Art Center Senior Manager, Adult Services Administrator and Assistant Director. She has led two major building projects as Director. She also directed the department rebranding as Library, Arts and Culture in recognition of the continuing evolution of libraries.

President's Message

Dear Members,

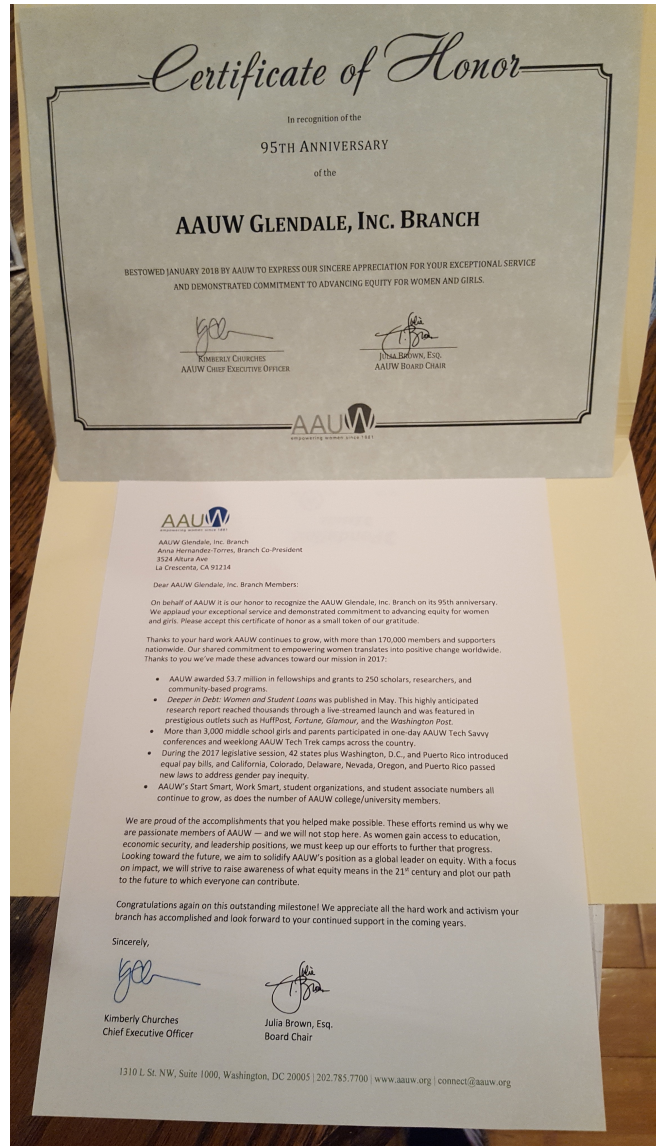

As many of you know, our branch celebrated its 95th Anniversary in January. Kimberly Churches and Julia Brown from the National AAUW recognized this milestone with a Certificate of Honor and letter (photo included). I am very proud of our branch. We have worked diligently to advance equity for women and girls. We still have a ways to go, but our continued efforts will help us reach our goals sooner. Thank you for your continued commitment and dedication.

Last year, the AAUW Board of Directors voted in June 2017 to enact the first dues change in almost a decade. Effective March 16, 2018, national dues will increase from $49 to $59. Our board will be discussing the impact of this increase. For details, please refer to Membership Dues Update and AAUW's website.

Lastly, please consider attending the AAUW California Convention in Irvine (April 27-29). This is a great opportunity to network and learn more about our organization on a state level. We need more members to be actively involved in order for our branch to continue to exist. March ushers in a new season. Challenge yourself by attending a board meeting and learn how our branch works. The next board meeting is Monday, March 5 at 6:45pm. We'd love to see you. Happy Spring!

Sincerely,

Anna Hernandez-Torres
Co-President

AAUW IN THE NEWS

Several weeks ago on the National Public Television News Hour, AAUW received recognition and praise for its support of women's rights and women's issues. It was praised for its support of equal pay and helping introduce the Equal Pay Bill and a women's right to choose. AAUW leaders were shown speaking up and supporting women and girls who had bravely reported sexual harassment and assaults. It is very encouraging to have these issues finally being discussed and brought to the public's attention.

ROCKET GIRLS EVENT

The city of Pasadena chose the book, Rise of the Rocket Girls: The women Who Propelled Us From Missiles to the Moon to Mars as its One City, One Book selection this year. We read this book in both our Day and Evening Book Clubs and one of the "Girls," Sylvia Miller spoke to our book groups about her experiences at JPL. This book relates the history of JPL and also the young women--known as human computers--who with only pencil, paper, and brain power helped bring about America's first ballistic missiles. The author, Nathalia Holt, will share her experience about writing the novel on Thursday, March 8, 7 p.m. at All Saints Church, 132 N. Euclid Ave. Pasadena.

No tickets are required and the event is free.
