Hello Glendale Branch:

On the 27th of October, four of us attended the annual Funds Luncheon in Seal Beach. Anna Hernandez-Torres drove Hannah Cline, Birdie Zitnick (my Mom), and myself. I think it is essential for new members to be able to experience the Funds Luncheon at least once in their membership with AAUW, which is why I insisted that my Mother come this year. There were twelve young ladies who were recipients of our American Fellowships and five young ladies who were recipients of our International Fellowships. We had nine young ladies who were recipients of our Selected Professions Fellowships, and twelve young ladies who were recipients of our Career Development Grants. A couple from each category came up and talked about what she is working on and thanked AAUW for the ability to continue due to the funds that we provide. We also gave out two Community Action Grants this year; one to Cher Martin from the Girl Scouts of Redlands, and one to a Georgia Van Cuylenburg who created her own Non-Profit (Arts Bridging the Gap, LA-“Girls Make VR”) to help traumatized children through art.

We were given some facts about AAUW this year that I thought I would pass on to the Glendale membership. By August 31, 2019, our Work Smart program has trained 102.7k women in salary negotiation. This accomplishment was made possible by us due to the generous grant from the Coca Cola Corporation. AAUW has sought out large corporations to donate so that we can turn around and grant monies to students, Start Smart, Work Smart, NCLWSL, and Tech Trek. Due to some very generous donations, AAUW has many Fellowship and Grant monies, which is why we were able to help out more young women this year than in past years. We were encouraged to get our new members, of working age, to go on the internet and take the Work Smart course. We were told that women across the country are finding locations where the program is being taught and attending classes closest to them. AAUW’s new pilot program, the Equity Network, is tied in to our Work Smart and Start Smart programs.

That is why we are now encouraged to donate to our “Greatest Needs” fund to help support these programs. National AAUW will announce the Grant Match program from the “Greatest Needs” program will be on December 3, 2019.

Previously, I wrote to you about our new 5 Star Program. AAUW has created a website for everyone to keep up on the latest on each branch and to post how your branch is accomplishing its goals. If you would like to check it out, go to www.aauw/5star.org. We were told that there is a quote on there from Billie Jean King, “Champions keep playing until they get it right!” We were also told that Giving Tuesday is the Tuesday after Thanksgiving, and we were encouraged to remember to donate to AAUW. If you have any questions or comments, you may send them to executive@aauw.org or churchesk@aauw.org. You will receive a reply and can be assured of confidentiality.

Due to the fabulous technology we now possess, we can listen and watch shows on our phones. While watching something on YouTube, I heard that different countries have different dates for Daylight Savings Time. For instance, in Great Britain, the clocks were turned back on the 27th of October. Here in the United States, we turned them back on the 3rd of November. If you are traveling this holiday season, please remember to check and see if the time there has not been turned back or forwarded. Being born and raised here in the States, it never occurred to me that other countries that participated in Daylight Savings Time might do so on different dates. I cannot begin to tell you all how comfortable it was to have all my clocks (cable box, phone, and car) updated automatically for me. This year I did not wind a thing!

This December there is no meeting, but instead our annual Holiday Party. That party will be the same day as our meeting, but in the evening, from 4 pm-8 pm. Mary Pallares has again been gracious in offering her home. This year we will have three entrée choices (beef, chicken, and vegetarian). You can view the entire menu on page 2 of this newsletter. You may make your selection at the party. I am very much looking forward to seeing you all there, as every year it proves to be an enjoyable evening. We have a couple of new members, and I very much would like to see them attend. Mary’s home is very festive and warm, which always leads to good cheer. I thank you all for your continued support. May you all have a Happy Hanukah and Merry Christmas!

My AAUW Best Wishes to you,

Cathy Zitnick

Founder's Day Opportunity Raffles in January

Now is the time to think about items for our Founder's Day Opportunity raffles. Please call or email Cathy Zitnick (czitnick@outlook.com or 818 292-7180) with the item you are donating by Tuesday, January 7, 2020, so we can plan the tablespace. This year, the funds raised by the raffle at the Founders' Day luncheon on January 11 will be donated to AAUW Funds. In addition to baskets, gift cards, handmade items, original art, unique ceramics, new handbags, event or museum tickets, spa services have also been popular items. Homemade baked goods are popular. Commercial food items must be in their original sealed and unopened packages. Unused gifts from the Hannukah/Christmas holidays will not be acceptable. Clothing items must have the original price tag...with or without the price showing. You may use containers other than baskets. Consider grocery tote bags, boxes covered with wrapping paper, large plastic bowls, plastic buckets, large movie popcorn containers, plastic trays, plastic dishpans. Most items can be found very inexpensively at 99 cent type stores. A notice will also be in the January newsletter. At the Christmas party, there will be a handout with suggestions for you to take home. The purchase of the raffle tickets is not tax-deductible. If you want to write a check to purchase the raffle tickets, it should be made out to the Glendale Branch AAUW. We will need 3 raffle ticket sellers; please let Cathy know if you can help with this task.
